 - OR
 - b. practice and have collaborative relationships with one or more qualified physicians, or a New York State Health Department licensed health care facility in accordance with New York State law.
2. All other NPs (with less than 3,600 hours of practice) must practice in accordance with written practice protocols and a written practice agreement with a collaborating physician as described above.

Check the box that best reflects how you plan to practice if New York State issues you a nurse practitioner certificate.

- I have LESS than 3,600 hours of experience practicing as a licensed or certified nurse practitioner, and I am required by New York Law to practice in accordance with a written practice agreement with a collaborating physician.
- I have MORE than 3,600 hours of experience practicing as a licensed or certified nurse practitioner in New York or another state or while employed as a nurse practitioner by the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Veterans Administration or U.S. Public Health Service, and I plan to practice in accordance with a written practice agreement with a collaborating physician in accordance with New York Law.
- I have MORE than 3,600 hours of experience practicing as a licensed or certified nurse practitioner in New York or another state or while employed as a nurse practitioner by the U.S. Armed Forces, U.S. Veterans Administration or U.S. Public Health Service, and I plan to practice and have collaborative relationships with one or more qualified physicians or a Department of Health licensed health care facility in accordance with New York State Law.

13. Child Support Obligation

Everyone applying for a professional license, permit, or registration, or any renewal thereof, must certify that, as of the date of the filing, she or he is, or is not, under an obligation to pay child support*. Individuals who are four months or more in arrears in child support or who have failed to comply with a summons, subpoena or warrant relating to a paternity or child support proceeding may be subject to suspension of their business, professional, drivers and/or recreational licenses and permits. The intentional submission of false written statements for the purpose of frustrating or defeating the lawful enforcement of support obligations is punishable under section 175.35 of the Penal Law.

You must complete this section before we can issue the credential for which you have applied. Individuals who are not in compliance with their obligation to pay child support can be issued a credential for no more than six months in order to comply with their child support obligations.

CHECK ONLY A OR B BELOW. If you check B, you must check one of the five statements listed below it.

A I am not under an obligation to pay child support;

Or

B I am under an obligation to pay child support and (please check only one of the following)

- I am current and am not four months or more in arrears in the payment of child support; or,
- I am making payments by income execution or by court agreed payment plan or by a plan agreed to by the parties; or,
- The child support obligation is the subject of a pending court proceeding; or,
- I am receiving public assistance or supplemental security income; or,
- None of the above four statements apply.
